A. UWA

1. RESULTS

a. 7/12/91 at el Audetorio Municipal in Tijuana, Baja California, Mexico

1. Mascara contra caballera: Welterweight Super Muneco defeated super heavyweight Popitekus two falls to one.

b. 7/14/91 at la Pista Arena Revolucion in Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico

1. UWA World Women's Wrestling Championship Match: Champion Zuleyma (Elvia Fragoso Alonso) defeated challenger Maria del Angel (?) two falls to one is a very good match.

c. 7/19/91 at el Audetorio Municipal in Tijuana, Baja California, Mexico

1. Mascaras contra mascarar (NO titles on the line): las Panteras Rosas: los Villanos I, IV, and V (UWA Trios champions) defeated los Mercenarios Americanos (WWA champions) two falls to one. The paper did not report the names of the losing team. los Villanos had won one other match like this, on October 21, 1988, in Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, versus los Brazos! No other results from that card were printed.

d. Sunday, July 21, 1991, at el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos in Naucalpan, Mexico, Mexico (5:00 pm local time)

1. WWF World Light Heavyweight Championship Match: Champion The Pegasus Kid (Chris Benoit, who weighed 98 kg or 216.1 pounds) defeated challenger el Gran Hamada (Haraoki Hamada, who weighed 92 kg or 202.9 pounds) 2 falls to 1.
1: Pegasus pinned Hamada with a flying cross body block.
2: Hamada pinned Pegasus with a superplex off the top rope
3: Doctor Daza (legit commission doctor) stopped the match because Hamada was bleeding too much (the paper printed a picture and it was some blood but not nearly what Pirata Morgan bled a year ago against el Faraon when the EMLL pulled the same finish). Rated a good match.
2. Canek and The Killer defeated Mil Mascaras and el Fantasma (this means Dos Caras is still hurt too bad to go) two falls to one.
1: Killer and Canek pinned Fantasma and Mil simultaneously
2: Mil pinned Canek with a cross body block.
3: Killer pinned Mil when Mil was tripped by Andy Barrow, The Killer's manager, as Mil was going for a body slam; while Canek was pinning Fantasma with an enredada (a small package, which if you think about it is an odd way for a heel to cleanly win a deciding fall, right?)

Also rated a good match.

3. Kato Kung Lee II (Kendo), Silver King, and el Texano defeated Miguel "el Negro" Navarro, el Indomito, and The Black Power two falls to one.
4. la Ola Lila: Ruddy Reyna, May Flowers, and Pimpinela Escarlata defeated Katana, Valente Fernandez, and a third man not listed by the paper two falls to one.
5. los Temerarios: Black Terry, Shu, el Guerrero, and Jose Luis Feliciano defeated Akiyoshi, Takayama, and el Samurai two falls to one.

e. 7/23/91 at la Arena Pachuca in Pachuca, Mexico, Mexico

1. UWA World Light Heavyweight Championship Match: Champion el Villano III defeated challenger Doctor Wagner junior two falls to one.
2. la Ola Lila: Pimpinela Escarlata, May Flowers, and Rudy Reyna, defeated las Panteras Rosas: los Villanos I, IV, and V, in a non-title match two falls to one. This is very rare. In my time of over one year spent scouring for Mexico results, this is the FIRST match I can EVER recall where the Villanos lost a non-title match...
3. Midgets: Arturito and la Filli Estrella defeated el Gran Nikolai and el Pequeno Goliath two falls to one.
4. Takeda and Mando Amezcua defeated los Mohicanos I and II two falls to one.

f. 7/24/91 at la Arena Lopes Mateos in Tlanepantla, Mexico, Mexico

1. UWA World Lightweight Championship Match: Champion Lasser defeated challenger Romano Garcia two falls to one. Both of these wrestlers wrestled as tecnicos for this match. This was Lasser's fifth official successful defense of his title.
1: Garcia p. Lasser with a "nudo." (sort of a small package)
2: Lasser made Garcia submit to a side boston crab.
3: Lasser made Garcia submit to a "tapatia" (standing rowboat).
2. Atlantis, la Mascara Sagrada, and el Rayo de Jalisco junior defeated los Mosqueteros del Diablo, los Brazos: el Brazo, el Brazo de Oro, and el Brazo de Plata, two falls to one. Yes, on an UWA card; this was one of los Brazos's old UWA bookings they had to satisfy and they brought an EMLL team to lose to. This is specifically to avoid being jobbed out against UWA teams! Better to have EMLL guys on a UWA card than to be jobbed out I guess...
3. Silver King and el Texano won a non-title match over el Scorpio I and and el Scorpio junior two falls to one.
4. Xochitl Hamada and Lady Apache defeated Neftali and la Briosa two falls to one.
5. los Nuevos Arqueros del Espacio: Robin Hood and la Flecha, defeated Sevillano and Smog (what kind of a name or a gimmick is Smog?) two falls to one.

3. NEWS AND NOTES

1. Senor Carlos Maynes announced that the card scheduled for Sunday, August 4, 1991, has been cancelled, because el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos has been rented out to a three-day Vanilla Ice concert. Thir big card that day will be held at la Arena Netzahualcoyotl in Netzahualcoyotl, Mexico, Mexico.
2. They also announced that when the construction on el Toreo is completed, it will seat an additional 15,000 fans. Right now the capacity is 19,000 in the stands and almost 6,000 on the floor. So total will go from 25K to 40,000! (this is being done to bring back bullfights and attract more concerts more than for lucha libre, of course.)
3. el Fantasma is working on a bit part in a Mexican movie called "la Venganza de los Punks" and he has started up a feud with Arandu following a match at el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos where they brawled into the locker rooms.

4. There was an old Mexican wrestling movie in the 1960's featuring a wrestling priest called "el Tormenta;" it was noted this week that it is NOT the same Fray Tormenta that is wrestling today.
5. Someone asked Mil Mascaras how many films he had either starred or appeared in and he said "26."
6. That Haitian brute I told you about a while back is called "Vudu" and is coming in to UWA in August as are finally the Steel Warriors.

B. EMLL

 1. NWA World Middleweight Championship Match: Champion Atlantis defeated challenger Emilio Charles junior two falls to one.
- b. Friday, June 28, 1991 at la Arena Coliseo in Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico
(This was the card that was pre-empted by soccer on our TV.)
 1. Kato Kung Lee I, Casanova el Vampiro Canadiense, and Atlantis won two straight falls over el Satanico, Nitron, and Fabuloso Blondy. This is what the EMLL always does. The week after a wrestler (face or heel) loses a stipulation singles match, he comes back and wins a six-man over a team captained by the guy he lost to last week.
 2. Jerry Estrada, Kung Fu, and "Kid" Chacho Herodes (he was doing a boxing gimmick: The Kid) defeated defeated el Volador, el Misterioso, and el Angel Azteca two falls to one.

4. Inicial not listed.

d. Wednesday, July 3, 1991 at la Arena Coliseo de Acapulco in Acapulco, Guerrero, Mexico

1. Mexican National Light Heavyweight Championship Match: Champion la Mascara Sagrada defeated challenger Jerry Estrada two falls to one via pinfall after a big right hand punch (that's what it said, not a very babyface way to keep a title if you ask me) in the third fall.
2. Fuerza Guerrera, Emilio CHarels junior, and Fabuloso Blondy defeated el Dandy, Javier "el Monarca" Cruz, and Ringo Mendoza two falls to zero when Dandy bled so much in the second fall he was easily pinned by Blondy.
3. el Rayo de Jalisco junior defeated Nitron two falls to none when Nitron was disqualified for a foul in the second fall.
4. Cocoon and Maemoto defeated Aquiles and el CHamaco Ayala two falls to one.

e. Wednesday, July 3, 1991 at el Audetorio de Torreon in Torreon, Coahuila, Mexico

1. Nitron and Jerry Estrada defeated Konnan el Barbaro and la Fiera two falls to one when a heel ref counted Fiera down against Estrada in the third fall even though Fiera actually got his shoulders up at the count of two.

2. los Hermanos Guerrero: CHavo, Mando, and Eddy, defeated la Nueva Ola Blanca: el Gran Markus junior, el Medico Asesino junior, and el Angel Blanco junior, two falls to one when Eddy pinned Blanco after Blanco missed a "tope suicida" attempt.

3. los Che Guevara I and II defeated Ludwig Star and Lucio Ayala two falls to one.
4. Ajax defeated Mogambo two falls to one.
5. Anfibijs defeated el Misterio Verde two falls to one.
Anfibijs was said to look the best of all the wrestlers in the first three matches.

j. 7/13/91 at la Arena Puebla in Puebla, Puebla, Mexico

1. Mexican National Heavyweight Championship Match: Champion el Egipcio (Luis Hernandez) defeated challenger the Blue Demon junior (Luis Rabadan junior) two falls to one. This match was the main event of the card celebrating the 38th anniversary of wrestling at la Arena Puebla. It was described as a good match, and el Egipcio bled a little.

k. 7/14/91 at la Arena Coliseo in Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico

1. Caballera contra caballera match: Rudo el Babe Richard defeated tecnico el Simbolo (Joel Rodriguez) two falls to one. Actually, it seemed the point of this match more than anything was put to put over el Gran Davis even more as a heel referee. el Babe Richard won the first fall after a foul by his second el Halcon Negro, on el Simbolo; and in the third fall, el Gran Davis completely ignored a pinfall cover by el Simbolo AND counted three at the end even though on the final pin el Simbolo had his leg draped over the bottom rope! Commissioner Ramiro Arechiga and barber Poncho Penaloza did nothing to overturn Davis' decision.
2. el Egipcio, Ulises, and Jaque Mate defeated el Pirata Morgan and two teammates not listed.
3. los Hermanos Guerrero: Chavo, Mando, and Eddy, defeated la Nueva Ola Blanca: el Gran Markus junior, el Medico Asesino junior, and el Angel Blanco junior, two falls to one.

2. The Semifinal: los Hermanos Guerrero: CHavo, Mando, and Eddy versus los Mosqueteros del Diablo, los Brazos: el Brazo, el Brazo de Oro, and el Brazo de Plata. Just a chance for each team to do their routines.
3. The Tercera: Apolo Dantes, The Blue Demon junior, and la Mano Negra versus Javier "Tijeras" Cruz, Hussein el Gran Sheick, and Emilio Charles junior. Obviously, the feud here is Dantes versus Cruz.
4. The Segunda: Midgets: Octagoncito, la Mascarita Sagrada, and la Aguilita Solitaria versus el Piratita Morgan, el Espectrito (junior), and Jerritio Estrada. The heat here will be between Sagrada and Morgan, who may have a mask versus hair match soon.
5. The Inicial: el Felino and el Justiciero versus el Septiembre Negro junior and Atila junior. The story here is that el Felino is turning heel (he will eventually join his brothers as a six-man, believe it or not, just as I hoped for in my little booking a while back) and Felino and Justiciero have begun a feud already, so watch for Felino and Justiciero to split here (they started this about 6 weeks ago in the opening match at la Arena Mexico.)

3. NEWS AND NOTES

1. el Satanico was interviewed 7/24/91 by Franciso Arturo Rosas Plata of OVACIONES. They printed the interview in the editions of 7/25/91. el Satanico said that he is seriously considering retirement. He said he was thinking this because he had just suffered his second injury in as many week. el Satanico (Jose Daniel Lopes Lopes) is 41 and he says it's the accumulation of injuries, more than any one injury, which has him thinking this way. He is still honoring all his bookings, as you will see in the cards section. Before his retirement, he claims his last two big goals are to win the mask of Lizmark and win the NWA World Light Heavyweight Championship one more time. He says he is sure he will retire within four years, as he can't imagine himself still taking these nightly bumps past age 45. He says he weighs 87 kilograms, or 192 pounds, which makes me think he's fibbing on his weight.

2. Micellaneous Notes:

- * el Pirata Morgan was born 7/28/62
- * el Brazo was born 7/30/61
- * Pierroth junior is from Morelos
- * el Volador is from Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico. On 3/9/91 he and el Angel Azteca won the Mexican National Parejas championships from la Bestia Salvaje and Pierroth junior.

3. The NWA World's Welterweight Wrestling Champion, Fuerza Guerrera was injured in an automobile accident just this past Wednesday night, July 24, 1991. According to the newspaper OVACIONES Guerrera had just finished a match at the arena "el Deportivo los penoles" in Mexico City when the car he was in was struck by a car driven by a drunken driver. It did not state whether Guerrera was the driver or a passenger. It did say his car, an expensive "Wolf," was officially listed as "totalled" by the police. The report says even though the car was destroyed, Guerrera suffered only minor injuries "scratches and light bruises." It is thought he might miss some matches but it is not known for sure. I am certain there will be an update on "la Tercera Caída" on the Galavision television show, the news segment which is taped Saturday afternoons.
4. OVACIONES reported that the EMLL was seriously considering punishing Konnan el Barbaro for having yet another ridiculous hair style. Various hair weaves and extensions have been "added." The reason they are upset is because it is somewhat fraudulent to "add" to your hair to rush into a hair match, which is what Konnan is doing. I mean if Precious Paul and Teddy Long can do a hair match...
5. There will be a function Thursday, August 1, 1991, at la Arena Coliseo, to benefit the legendary referee in Mexico named Eduardo "Eddy" Palau, who just recently has had his right hand amputated. Wrestlers scheduled to attend are: Tinieblas, Tinieblas junior, el Satanico, M S 1, Masakre, el Pirata Morgan, The Blue Demon junior, el Hijo del Gladiador, "el Loco" "CHacho" Herodes, la Mascarita Sagrada, la Aguilita Solitaria, Alushe, Octagoncito, el Espectrito (junior), el Piratita Morga, el Pequeno Cobarde, Cesar Valentino, Carlos "Colosso" Colosetti, Gargola el Sultan, Vicky Carranza, Lady Apache, la Sirenita, la Diabólica, Maria del Angel, and Tania la Guererrilla. Legends scheduled to attend are The Blue Demon (Luis Rabadan), el Manotas, Huracan Ramirez (Daniel Garcia), and Wolf Rubinskij.
6. They had an interview with el Soberbio in the 7/26/91 newspaper, where he said he debuted in 1975, weighs 86 kilograms or 190 pounds, and is 167 centimeters or 5'5.7" tall. He has lost three hair matches (to Shu, el Guerrero, el Sable, and Benny Castillo), while winning none.
7. el Pirata Morgan has begun a feud with Pierroth junior during a match held Saturday, July 6, 1991, at la Pistta Arena Revolucion in Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico. In the match, el Pirata Morgan, el rayo de Jalisco junior, and Black Magic defeated el Hombre Bala, Nitron, and Pierroth junior two falls to one. Immediately after the match, Morgan yanked off Pierroth's mask and Pierroth has sworn revenge. Hombre Bala, who turned face soon after Morgan did, wrestled as an emergency rudo replacement for injured el Satanico in this match, and wrestled against his brother for one of the first times in their long careers.

8. el Dandy missed some dates with a severe cut in his right eyelid (from blading). He is under the care of a kin doctor and is already back working.
9. Adolfo Bonales, formerly known as el Patron and as la Maravilla Enmascarado, was Mexico's first masked wrestler (according to him) in 1933. He says the first masked wrestlers were in Tulsa, Oklahoma, in 1928.
10. The WWF got a TV slot on Mutivision cable in Mexico (channel 28 on the one Mexico City cable system)! The local Mexico City times are: Monday nights at 11:00 pm, Sunday mornings at 10:00 am, and late Tuesday night/early Wednesday morning at 1:00 am.
11. la Mascara Sagrada debuted in May, 1979 in Texcoco, Mexico, Mexico, as Ecaton; he has since changed his name to Magico, then to Hecatombe, and finally on October 22, 1988, in Guadalajara, Jalisco, to la Mascara Sagrada.
12. Enrique Llanes formally retired from the commission June 24, 1991, after a very lengthy and distinguished career. The commission will now be run by Doctor Salvador Goldschmidt and by Juan Carlos Shon, jointly.
13. "el Chacho" Herodes this week at la Pista Arena Revolucion came out dressed as a tennis player and challenged John McEnroe over the p. a. system to a (tennis) match.
14. In this week's Lucha Libre Mundial magazine, (#1413, dated 07/22/91) the lead article is entitled "Carlos Espada, ¿es Anoblico?" Did I ever tell you Espada is sword in Spanish? It was a vicious article, too.
